Level		Date
Step 1 A little access to curric. thro English	1.1 Uses gestures to respond to greetings and questions about themselves 1.2 Vocab. - Can name frequently used classroom objects (book/pen/door/etc.) 1.3 Instructions: follows simple instructions based on classroom routines (e.g. Take your coat off) 1.4 Communication – Echoes words/expressions drawn from class routines/social interactions to communicate meaning. 1.5 Structures (single words): Responds to simple questions (Do you want a drink?) with yes/no responses and expresses some basic needs using single words or phrases in English 1.6 Writing (KS 2 only): - Can write own name and familiar words
Step 2 Some access to curric. thro. English - Eng. lang. learning needs are obvious	2.1 Copies talk that has been modelled 2.2 Vocab. – can name the most common objects/actions in school, home, street, etc. but many obvious gaps 2.3 Instructions– can follow day to day instructions but needs support for more complicated instructions 2.4 Communication – initiates conversation, but communication is hindered by differences from standard Eng. in almost every sentence 2.5 Structures (phrases): uses 3/4 word “telegraphic” sentences using verb stem only (me want book) 2.6 Stories: can follow a well illustrated story – answers straightforward who/what/where questions with single words/short phrases 2.7 Shows some control of English word order 2.8 Pronunciation is generally intelligible. 2.9 Writing (KS2 only): attempts to express meanings in writing, supported by oral work or pictures but uses only isolated words or very short phrases.
Level 1 Threshold (1T) Access to curric. thro. Eng but language learning needs are clear when assessed	3.1 Vocab. - names objects/activities not in the immediate environment but obvious limitations in ability to elaborate - knows only main words (e.g. bike but not pedal mudguard etc.) 3.2 Instructions/input - can follow general instructions and teacher input but misunderstandings are obvious 3.3 Communication – conveys meaning through talk and gesture and can extend what they say with support. Speaks about matters of immediate interest in familiar settings – mostly uses only a single tense (usually the present tense) and word endings (e.g. -ed, -es, etc.) often missing 3.4 Structures (simple sentences): speech includes subject-verb-object sentences, is beginning to ask questions using inversion (Is he, am I, etc.) -, speech is sometimes grammatically incomplete at word/phrase level 3.5 Stories: Can re-tell stories but the story often appears to be disjointed because of limitations in vocabulary, tenses, etc. – differences from standard English are still apparent. 3.6 Writing (KS2 only): With support can express meaning using simple sentences but with grammatical and spelling errors and lack of coherence.

Level 1 Secure (1S) Access to curriculum through English but language learning needs seen occasionally	4.1 Vocabulary. – can understand most general vocabulary used by teachers but has some difficulties with subject/culturally specific words, etc 4.2 Instructions/input – can usually follow general instructions/ teacher input/stories but sometimes misunderstands words and structures that are key to the story line, etc. 4.3 Structures (coordinated sentences): can use simple connectives (and, but, when, etc.) and can use more than one tense e.g. uses the past tense (I wrote) and future (I'm going to write) though not always accurately. 4.4 Stories –re-tells stories but more simply than original, lacking detail because of gaps in vocabulary, etc. some differences from standard English are still present 4.5 Communication – Speaks about matters of interest to a range of listeners and begins to develop connected utterances. What they say shows some grammatical complexity in expressing meaning, sustaining their contributions and the listeners' interest. 4.6 Writing (KS2 only): Can express meaning using simple sentences unaided using simple grammatical structures but grammatical and spelling errors and lack of coherence still obvious.
Level 2 Becoming a confident user of English	5.1 Vocab. - rapidly developing vocab, is able to select vocabulary to express a range of feelings, to describe activities, etc. but sometimes struggles to find the right word. 5.2 Instructions/input – can follow teacher input, stories and sequences of instructions but occasionally misunderstands uncommon words, nuances, more formal English, some colloquialism, puns, etc. 5.3 Structures (complex sentences) – uses a number of tenses but a smaller range than expected for age 5.4 Structures (KS2only) – can use subordinate clauses (who, which, that, etc.) 5.5 Communication – can communicate with ease but will occasionally misunderstand others 5.6 Stories – can re-tell a story suitable for age group although may use simpler vocabulary than in the original 5.7 Writing (KS2 only): Can write simple stories or paragraphs independently although they often lack coherence and contain obvious grammatical errors 5.8 Writing (KS2 only): can produce independently different types of writing but with some errors omissions and limitations being seen (e.g. Nat Curric lev 2 - Writing communicates meaning, using appropriate and interesting vocabulary, and showing some awareness of the reader. Ideas are developed in a sequence of sentences.)
